

Senior Last Will
and Testament

East Coweta
Class of 2010

I, Pam White, being of unsound mind and weary body do hereby leave mi corozon frances to Jose Casablanca, a French trailer to Evan Horton, “Vive la France” to Levi Young, “teach ’em up” to Bryan Bergstrom, my non-existent disciplinary skills to Cecilia de Aza Post, my birthplace to Harry Seals, ALL tick-tack-toe and Unit tests to Christy Poling, my former classroom to Brent Walburn, coffee and solace to Kitty Cheek, “in the fullness of time” to Juliann Brandes, “we’re outta here” to Adrienne Elder.

I, Antonio Perez, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to wait till the last minute to do everything and still receive one of the top grades in the class to all the slacker students of EC. To Mr. Elder, I thank you for never letting the class forget that how much you hate school, in the end, “It’s all about the Paypa!” I plan to attend The Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, New York to pursue a career in culinary arts. A memory that I will stay true to forever is to keep One Love in your heart, whether it be a person, thing, or ideal, for it will define you for the rest of your life.

I, Kayla Holwick, being of sound mind and body, do hereby give my ability to form ridiculous answers in Academic Bowl to Trey Blanden. To Ben Bockenek, I give my Mock Trial rule knowledge. To the upcoming seniors in Mock Trial, I give the opportunity to become lead attorney, and remember that you have to work for it. To Mrs. Stefenelli, thank you for getting me started in AP. To Mr. Robbins, I will always remember “Oh the Places You Will Go.” I will always be grateful to Mrs. Elder for pushing me to be better. My greatest thanks goes to Mrs. Stephens for all you have done in the past three years. I plan to attend the University of Georgia in the fall and pursue a degree in International Business.

I, Cajeon Robinson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby claim punchbuggy infinity on Jessica Kiel, a lot of “nice” name-calling and “playful” shoves to Devon Johnson, the ability to make up silly speeches on the spot to Gasten Warren, and lots of laughs, hugs, and smiles to everyone else. In my future, I am going to the University of West Georgia to major in education. Thanks to Mr. Martin, Senora Murray, Mr. O, Mr. Robbins, and Doc. I love you all!

I, Jessica Samone Brown, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave much success and happiness to all upcoming freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. One thing that I would like to say to you is “Don’t be a fool; play it cool if you want to get out of school.” In the fall, I am going to West Georgia Technical College for cosmetology. After many lessons to learn and accomplishments, I am going to open my own shop. I would like to thank many of the wonderful teachers at East Coweta because you mean so much to me and you have taught me more than I will ever know. Thanks Mrs. Latasha Williams, Mrs. Parsell, Mrs. Toni Noles, and last but not least Mrs. With.

I, Brittany Keaton, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my trainer’s scissors behind to Mel-Ro and Becky. Coach Knott and Coach Lovewell– I’ll be back for the Friday night lights. To my football family: enthusiasm even when you’re on the ground. Get back up. You can have my tolerance, Mrs. Stephens, and my “intense” ability to party. I leave all my coaches, teachers, and mentors with my utmost gratitude; you have inspired me to influence others. Underclassmen, walk with purpose and hold your head high like you’ve got a nosebleed. I plan to attend the University of Georgia in the fall to major in education with a focus in creative and gifted learning at a high school level.

I, Zachary Hole, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my advanced procrastination skills to my friends Rico Hans-King and Matthew Morgan, along with my good wishes and hope for all of my friends who I have had the pleasure of sharing my high school experiences with. I will always remember the fun I had with my friends along with the years in band class with Mr. Owens and Mr. Neidhardt, as I leave to attend Georgia State University.

I, Ivy Megginson, being of (relatively) sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to all present and future chorus students the absolute best time that anyone could have in high school being surrounded by your friends, a great teacher, and beautiful music. I leave to you all the complete inability to sit still, and to Abby and Tori I leave the endless making of copies. I will attend Columbus State University’s school of music to pursue a career in choral conducting. Thank you all, especially Mrs. Weeks, for filling these four years with wonderful memories that I will carry with me for the rest of my life.

I, Jasleen Kaur Bolina, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my half-hearted sarcasm and senioritis (where waking up is procrastinated) to Heather Rose and Lauren Boudreau. Chelcee Bryant, I leave you my lunches and metabolism. Courtney Matheny will receive paperwork to patent chemiosmosis. “Best Friend” Mike Collins: I hope you find all of the writing utensils I loaned you. To those brave enough to take AP Biology, I leave the Friday Shenanigans. Many have asked to inherit my brain and super-genius powers, but I need those for Auburn University in the fall to pursue a career as an operating room pharmacist.

I, Danielle Alexander, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my costumes to Echostage. To Taley I leave you with the "High School Memories." To Mr. Robbins I leave my animal cell project. To Doc I leave all my thanks. I plan on attending college at Columbus State University to double major in Theatre and dental hygiene. To Katarina and Kayla H., I leave you guys the memories of us sharing every moment with each other.

I, Ashley Dawson, being of sound mind and body, leave my awesome organizational skills to Mrs. Kelly Jackson. I leave Katie Kaminski the ability to withstand the perversion that comes from the boys at lunch. I leave Kristopher Nelson the ability to make perfect poster projects. I will be attending the University of West Georgia. I want to thank Mr. Neidhardt and Mr. Owens for showing me that life goes on after something goes wrong. I appreciate that greatly. Thank you Madame White for being you. I will really miss you.

I, Emily Stephens, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the care of my mother, Mrs. Stephens, to Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Stefenelli, and Ms. Spradlin. I leave the treasured "Friday Song" to Margaret Kazmierczak. To Ben Bockenek, I leave an ounce of my intelligence. To Mrs. Lowrie, I leave my sarcasm sign for future use against Mr. Sewell. I plan to attend Georgia Tech in the fall where I will major in Biology and enjoy being a cheerleader!

I, Ryan Collis, leave my "swole" to Jason Eady and Tyler Ridgeway. I, Ryan Collis, leave my four square skills to Kyle Lorow. I, Ryan Collis, leave my football skills to Nick Girard. I, Ryan Collis, leave all my inner strength, love, joy, and devotion to Daniela Velez.

I, Joey Cyr, leave to my sister Meranda Cyr my AP US notes. If I can find them. To my friend Trevor Bachman I leave my severe case of senioritis and my ability to fail my senior paper and sleep in class and still pass language with an 81 average. I plan to attend Southern Polytechnic State University to study engineering.

I, Edith Avila, bequeath my ability to function with two hours of sleep to all of the AP geniuses. I leave behind all the mistakes of procrastination and take all the positives. Good Luck. I give a special thanks to Mrs. White, Lewandowski, and Mrs. Elder. You guys have changed my life for the best and you pushed me to the edge. Thank you, for teachers like you will be blessed.

I, Alice Bentley, leave to Eddie Morris my love to hold onto that which you already you have a tight grip. I leave my cheerleading skills to all my girls, Brittany Stewart, Jacee Terell, Morgan Bass, and Mel-lissa "Mel" Boone. And to my love Olivia Jackson, I leave my strength... heaven knows you'll need it! I myself plan to attend Georgia Southern University in the fall of 2010 to become a journalist. Wish me luck!

I, Jessica "J. Lee" Lee, being of sound mind and body, do hereby graduate. I leave my good wishes to all those who are not. Chris, keep saying your famous line. I plan to attend a college ten graduate again. Then, I'll get a job and live my life.

I, Angie Ingram, do hereby leave my learning abilities of not procrastinating to finish my course work at the last minute, and also the school parties where we lost our common sense and danced until our bodies dripped sweat, to celli cell, a.k.a. Marcellus Parrott. Remember that the sky is the limit so whatever you put your mind to will be possible if you just have faith. I will be attending Gordon College to pursue a career in nursing.

I, Meggan Scott, being of sound mind and body, leave my ability to run away from creepers to my beautiful sister, Sarah Scott. I leave Katie Kaminski, Derrick Perez, Jordan Bailey, Antonio Foles, and my lovely clarinets the ability to stay beautiful, no matter what. I'll be attending Georgia Southwestern to study psychology. I couldn't have done it without my family, Neidhardt, Owens, Mr. Elder, Mrs. With, Lewie (my lotto ticket buddy), and the lovely Mrs. Stefenelli. Congrats to the class of 2010!

I, Miracle Golden, being of sound mind and body, do hereby believe that if there were more teachers like Mrs. Barronton, the graduation rate would be 100%, and attendance would always be perfect because students couldn't miss a day of being taught by their favorite teachers like Mrs. Barronton. She has been such an inspirational teacher to me. Thanks... and much love!

I, Aksa Anwar, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the drama, excitement, and extensive amount of work, to my sister, Yusra. I plan to attend Georgia State University. I would like to thank Mrs. Elder and Mr. Robbins for believing in me and encouraging me to be the best I can be! Farewell, high school!

I, Carissa Bussie, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Nesha “Solo” Edward to thick shawty all my partying and late night cakin lol. To Keshana (thickest in the school) Goode I leave my ability to accomplish everything in one day. And I can’t forget my girl Symone Walker (too grown). I leave you the ability to be grown now. Love you all! I am only a text away (lol). I plan to attend JSU in the fall to pursue a career in nursing.

I, Anthony Steve Davila, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to procrastinate to Madame White, the teacher who has helped me with many things in my life. To Alex Marie Madrid, my love for the simple things in life and nature. To Al Banks and Tanner Rector, my love for cars and racing. To Matt Brown and Tommy Watson, my running abilities and the skills to pull “J-turns.” To Chris Smoot, my ability to fail every test and somehow pass the class. To Trevor Bachman, my “skills” in swimming. Last but not least, TJ Kholi and Abby Corser, the ability to remain positive and strong during difficult situations. I plan to attend UGA in the fall to pursue a major in International Business along with a minor in Japanese.

I, Justin Combs, being of sound mind do hereby leave my ability to make anyone laugh to my brothers. I leave my study habits to all the juniors who are taking AP Literature/ Microeconomics. I plan to attend Georgia Southern University to pursue a career as a doctor. To Coach Knott, who has influenced my life the most, I leave all the good times we had together on the sidelines. I will always come back to the games when I can.

I, Mark Nations II, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Kayla my whole heart. I love you best friend. I would like to leave what is left of my sanity to Megan Hillyer because she is the one who helped me keep what I have left. To Katarina I leave my love for acting because I know you are gonna shine next year! To Joel I leave all the smiles I never gave because I don’t like my teeth and his are awesome. I have loved high school so much and will miss it like crazy. I hope you all love your next year!

I, Marissa Greene, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to finish the senior paper without pulling an all-nighter the night before it’s due to Hunter Woods. To Lauren Ward, I would like to leave my water-color painting abilities (as long as she promises to let me visit Lola!). To the remaining high school students, I wish the will to succeed and to make these years great. I would like to thank all of my teachers for their encouragement. It is because of them that I will continue my education at the University of Georgia. I especially want to thank Madame White for making my transition into East Coweta much more bearable than I had anticipated.

I, Lynnda Wright, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my wisdom and creativity along with my writing and test taking ability. Try to make class time the best and get plenty of rest even if it’s during class that’s so you won’t crash. For when you have to deal with all the senior hassles all the way till you receive your tassel, make the decisions that are best for you and then you will make it through. I plan to go to Columbus State to major in Biology and become a brain surgeon. Special thanks to Mr. Elder, Mrs. Knott, and Mr. Sewell.

I, Nancy Patricia Bott, being of questionably sound mind and body do hereby leave my absolute awesomeness to my cousin, Becca Bott; use it wisely. I leave my lameness to fill all of the classes Mrs. Williams has for years to come, and my super fantastic, amazing, unforgettable personality to remain at East Coweta forever. I plan on attending West Georgia Technical to become a certified paramedic. Kelli Williams and Jan Melton, I will miss y’all like crazy! Thanks for EVERYTHING!

I, Jacob Demlow, being of sound body and mind, do hereby leave my freshman MASKE!, my uniqueness, and my ability to be whomever I want. To Joel I leave my video making knowledge. To the future Echostage officers I leave patience and compassion. To Katelyn I leave my understanding and late night conversations. I would like to thank Doc and Mr. O for making the past four years so memorable. I would also like to thank Ms. Wickham and Ms. Williams for being accepting, wonderful people. To Kendall Trammell I leave my “Single Ladies” legacy. To Ili, Micaela, Marilyn, Kat, and Kayla I leave my love of Lady Gaga. I would like to thank all my other friends and teachers for the support and love in my education. I will continue my education this fall at Georgia State University.

I, Tyler Hall, rockin’ the class of X, leave my legacy chain to The Irishman. Wear it proudly and pass it on. A few teachers stand out in my memories of this place. Madame White, four years in your class have been great. Miss Melton, your teaching class helped me realize I want to teach. Finally, Ms. Walker, without your math help, I wouldn’t have graduated. I just wanna thank everyone who has helped me through these four years at ECHS.

I, Natalie Robertson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Melanie Robertson my '88 Ford and a parking space. I also give my school involvement and opportunities; enjoy it while you can. To Lauren Grant, my zumba moves (work it girl!) and memories of fun times and good conversation; to Alexa Moss and Melanie Robertson, my leadership in chorus. Show Mrs. Weeks some respect! To Taylor Moore, a.k.a. Willis, my AP notes and my advanced procrastination. I also give you more time to hang out with Mel, even though you will never take my place; to Victor Mendez, good lunch conversations and the ability to dream big. Shoot for the stars! I plan to attend the University of Georgia in the fall and major in broadcasting or public relations.

I, JT Perry, being of sound body and mind, do hereby leave the "lo-ma-pa" rock to Cole Bodner. O also leave my ability to wake up late and make it to school on time to Rachel Kittle. I would also like to say good luck to the drill team. After I graduate, I will be going to Marine Corps boot camp. I would like to thank Colonel Ingram, MSgt Skinner, and GySgt Jones. These teachers have influenced me every day of high school and will always be considered heroes to me. SEMPER FI

I, T.J. Kelly, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my t-shirts, humor, and way of life with Ethan Iannarino. I leave my hacky sack skills to Jake Mathis. I leave my awesome hair to Rachel Deryck and my Asian Persuasion to Olivia Flynt. The teachers that have impacted me the most are Mrs. Ottavio, Coach Blair, and all of the Spanish teachers! I'm glad Blair, Robbins, and Stephens loved my songs! I'm taking my singing skills with me!

I, Maya Austin, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my leadership skills to Olivia, Brittany, and Jazmyn as they lead the varsity basketball cheerleading squad next year. Good luck to all of you! No matter what happens, remember to always have fun, keep your cool, and do you. My advice to underclassmen is to always work hard, never give up, and to never let anyone tell you that you can't do something. I plan to attend Valdosta State University in the fall to pursue a career in early childhood education. I would like to thank Mr. Nigrelli for helping me understand chemistry and Mrs. Elder for teaching me now to REALLY write. Attending EC for four years has been a great experience, but it's time for me to go. With love, peace, and happiness, I say farewell to EC and hello to adulthood.

I, Cale Foster, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Mrs. White my aviator glasses for letting Zakk and I play Top Gun with the class headsets. I also leave the tradition of the banana suit at the football games to Lee Brown. My nickname of Whale goes to Michael Huges. I plan to attend Truett-McConnell College and play baseball while pursuing a career in education or business. I would like to thank Mrs. Stephens for being a great teacher and making me understand the brighter side of teaching.

I, Raquel Offield, leave my ability to eat food in class without getting caught to my junior friend Christina Kirkman. I leave my ability to finish homework for a certain class in the class before it to Marti Hemphill. I leave my ability to be awesome to my little brother Nick. I hope all my junior friends have a great senior year next year. Good luck next year and try to stay out of trouble, Nicky Icky. GO MERCER!!!

I, Morgan Hunnicutt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave EC with my procrastination for others to keep; I no longer want it. I'm leaving with the hope of Barry Weaver continuing with his stubborn will to exceed his classes, no matter how often I call him a dork. I also leave with thanks to Mrs. Ratzlaff for encouraging me to never give up. I am attending the University of West Georgia to become a kindergarten teacher.

I, Tiffany Craig, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Garrett Hall the courage to be his own person and along with our spot out at the bus loading area. I leave Amanda Caldwell morning alertness to stay awake and be the "spokesman" in seminary. I will be leaving in July for Brigham Young University in Rexburg, Idaho.

I, Justin Combs, being of sound mind do hereby leave my ability to make anyone laugh to my brothers. I leave my study habits to all the juniors who are taking AP Literature/ Microeconomics. I plan to attend Georgia Southern University to pursue a career as a doctor. To Coach Knott, who has influenced my life the most, I leave all the good times we had together on the sidelines. I will always come back to the games when I can.

I, Ja'lisa Bussie, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my warm heart and cakin on Friday nights to my buttermilk, sister Keshara Goode. I love you girl. Also, I can't forget about my solo shawty, Neshia Edwards. I leave you my late night party days and our breaking curfew. Y'all just remember that you should always strive for excellence. My plan is to pursue a career as a traveling nurse at Albany State University.

I, Melissa Kawai, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath: to Margaret Kazmierczak, my AP Biology notes; I hope they help you more than they helped me. Taylor Mercer, Lauren Ward, and Emily Thompson, I leave you with nothing but my love! To Savannah Pelletier, I leave my crown (you know what I mean). Hunter Woods, never stop being a goober, it suites you. Charles Henson, keep on rockin'! I will be attending Georgia Southern University and be an active member of the "chair," I mean, Air Force National Guard. I am double majoring in international affairs and a language and minoring in photography. After two years at Southern, I plan to transfer to Auburn University and continue my studies there. Mrs. Bennett, you intimidated me and taught me to never sleep in or skip class. You were one of the best teachers I've ever had and you can be sure you'll be getting an email from me that you can read to your classes next year. Mr. Robbins, I leave you with our secret high five, may it live on forever! Mr. Carson, stay golden! To future graduates of East Coweta, study hard (especially if you have AP Biology) and enjoy your time in high school. These are the fastest four years of your life and there is plenty more to come!

I, Rachel Furbee, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave next year's yearbook staff with the responsibility of creating the yearbook. To next year's Editor-in-Chief, I leave the important task of being Mrs. Garcia's faithful "sidekick." I would like to say a special thanks to Mrs. Garcia for choosing to take on the huge responsibility of creating the yearbook. Her dedication to create a beautiful book has clearly become reality, and I appreciate the work she has done to make this year's book a success. I am looking forward to attending Georgia College and State University in the fall of 2010.

I, Adrienne Elder, being of soon-to-be-relaxed mind and body, do hereby bequeath, upon my departure from ECHS, the following items to said persons: My vast collection of literary classics (with a couple of trash novel thrown in) to my English department friends and co-workers, whom I will miss dearly. I leave many hours of grading AP essays/10-page term papers and writing college/ scholarship recommendations to Micki Byrnes. My dearly beloved (and CLEAN) room and my treasured English friends I leave in good hands with Randy Robbins. To Chris Sewell, I leave my whips and chains (not the fun kind) for obtaining senior dues and other outstanding debts. I leave only one more year for my good buddy, David Ingram. To Cynthia Bennett, I leave my cell phone number, which she better use to keep in touch. I'm not leaving anything for Pam White because she'll be sitting with me on the beach. For all my students of this year and years gone by, I leave my love for you wherever you may go and take memories of you forever with me. Thank you ECHS for making my life complete!

I, Sara Kennedy, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Daniela Velez and Shari Taylor to stay strong in their relationship with God, to keep their heads high and to be strong leaders, to share the word, and to be incredible role models as the beautiful women of God they are! Psalm 16:8 "I have set the Lord always before me. Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken." I plan to attend Atlanta City Church's "City Interns" in the fall to pursue a career in the ministry.

I, Rachael Copeland, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the best summer ever to Margaret Kazmierczak, William Stanier, Kendall Trammell, and Ben Bockenek. To Melanie Robertson I leave the perseverance to get through two more years. To Derek Foulks, I leave you the ability to laugh no matter what the circumstance. Mr. Robbins, you will always be my STAR. Mrs. Elder, you have changed my life more than you will ever know. Mrs. Bennett, thank you for keeping my senioritis in check. To the ladies in Guidance, I would never have made it without you. Dr. Waggoner, thank you for being a loyal leader of the high school of champions. I will be attending Georgia Tech in the fall as a President's Scholar to study finance.

I, Sarah Adams, leave my ability to procrastinate and leadership abilities to my cousin, Scarlett Holt. You never realize how fast your life will pass you by. High school is a big slap in the face, but it's worth it. I plan to attend the University of West Georgia to pursue a career in education. I'd like to thank Mr. Storey for being an amazing teacher. Remember, never convince yourself of something your heart denies.

Congratulations 2010 Seniors
